

Identification Requirements for Partnership / Unincorporated Business

All documents must be legible, and be written preferably in English or at minimum in a language based on the Latin Alphabet for ease of translation. Any documents submitted in Aramaic (i.e. Arabic / Hebrew), Logographic (i.e. Chinese), Greek / Cyrillic (i.e. Russian) Alphabets or such other non-Latin Alphabets will either be rejected or will contribute severe delays to the account opening process if no other document has been provided instead.

In accordance with Joint Money Laundering Steering Group (“JMLSG”) guidance, we can accept electronic copies or certified colour scans of the identification documents detailed in this document subject to the following specifications. Please note any documents provided electronically which are not clear, in colour and certified in accordance with the below will not be accepted. Alternatively, we can also accept copies of the original documents via post detailing an original certification signature but this will delay the completion of our account opening due diligence:
